

What is Gulliver?

Gulliver is the National Instant Reservation Service operated by Gulliver Ireland and is the premier location for on-line reservations in Ireland.

Operated by Fexco from its base at Killorglin, Co. Kerry, Gulliver is your assurance that all properties hosted on their system are properly graded and approved, an added assurance when booking through their secure online service.

You may telephone Gulliver freephone from Ireland, the UK or Europe on 00 800 866 866 88 for specific information which may not be available on their website.

Please note:

As our website, www.irelandselfcateringguide.com is primarily a portal of information, which does not offer booking capabilities, clients are directed to the property of their choice by means of telephone, fax, email, owner/operator websites and in the case where the property or properties are available on Gulliver - the National Reservation Service, a direct link to Gulliver is provided for your convenience, to check availability and rates.
